

listening to your thoughts about...

BLOCK G & THE CANTEEN

What's it all about?

Block G and the Wartime Canteen at Bletchley Park are owned by Bletchley Park Holdings (BPH). The owners have a strong track record of repurposing historical buildings.

Listening to you

Today we are listening to local people's thoughts about the two sites - gathering ideas of how they might be redeveloped. Any plans will aim to celebrate their history, whilst giving the buildings a new life that supports the local economy. Current ideas include repurposing Block G to become offices, a hotel or an educational facility.

Who we are

Today you have talked to Emma James or May Molteno. We work for Place Made - a consultancy that helps people have a say in the places where they live. Contact us on:
emma@placesmade.com

